Who are we?

Established in 1989 we work with males from 11 years plus.

Someone Cares is a dedicated counselling service, working with survivors and supporters of all types of abuse and its related issues. Specialising in childhood sexual abuse, rape and sexual assault.

OUR AIM

“To enable those affected by abuse to lead a more effective life and reduce the stigma associated with abuse.”

What our clients say.....

“I think my counsellor is an excellent counsellor and that my experience here has been very helpful. Thank you all very much”

(Male client).

“Apprehensive at first didn't think the rapport would be there, good listener, you do the service proud”

(Male client)
